Organizations

Organizations

It rained on our first day at Longwood, and once every week after that. We were welcomed, though, with meetings, tours, parties. There were girls in white dresses, girls in blue dresses, girls in army jackets. We were introduced to the Longwood ways of life.

Through songfest, Oktoberfest, burning the midnight oil, we are part of Longwood.

Carrying a hockey stick or a library book, cramming for tests, or painting a house, all are part of Longwood. Sorority rush, color rush, always rush to classes, to meetings, for a date; we are growing, we are grown, we are different.

We are Longwood.

Different women, women of a kind — we have the vote, the drink, the privilege to speak for ourselves.

And we do. With suggestion and guidance, the quiet one, the vivacious one, the joiner, the loner all speak together.

CLASSES

CLASS

We are the people who make up Longwood.
We grumble and complain:
eight o'clock
classes,
midnight fire drills;
the roommate who sleeps
all day and plays SANTANA
all night.
Not enough closet space,
but too much room to clean.
Scholars, musicians, radicals,
conservatives, students, women.
We are all different.
We are all in this together.
